In the afternoon, we take a walk and hike to visit Ham Rong Mountain or Dragon Jaw Mountain which overlook the town of Sapa – just look to the northwest and you will see the peak forming the ‘dragon’s jaw’ rising impressively over the town. The route to the top begins with a walk through a beautiful orchid garden, and then on to a European style botanical garden where you will find a variety of colourful flowers and plants. By this time you will be at a good altitude to stop and appreciate the stunning views across the Muong Hoa valley to Fansipan Mountain, the highest peak in Vietnam, and over Sapa town itself. From here you will continue upwards to Heaven’s Gate where you can enjoy great views of the ‘dragon’s jaw’. Eventually you will reach the mountain peak where you will be treated to unrivalled views over the valley and a birds eye view of Sapa.

Then we proceed to visit Silver waterfall. From the falls you can experience the stunning view of the surrounding mountains and the lush forest

Return to Lao Cai railway station. Dinner at local restaurant.

Overnight on train – 4-berths shared cabin, 1 pax per berth

Day 5: Hanoi - Good Morning tour & Bat Trang pottery village (B/L/D)

Upon arrival early in the morning (around 05:00 am), you will be picked up to continue with your “Good morning tour” in Hanoi:

First we visit to the famous flower market where hundreds of different kinds of flowers are being sold in bulk to the flower shop keepers. Transfer to Long Bien bridge where, underneath is one of the biggest and busiest fruit markets of Hanoi. Both of these markets are only seen in the early morning!

Next we will travel on foot to visit the Old Quarter. You will see street side markets preparing for the morning. We then make our way to Hoan Kiem Lake to witness, and maybe even take part in, people, young and old, exercising, doing Tai Chi, and jogging. As the sun rises, and the light becomes perfect, take every opportunity to snap some of the best photos of your trip! Enjoy breakfast at a local restaurant.

Transfer to Bat Trang village - Located on the outskirts of Hanoi by the banks of the Red River, Bat Trang is a traditional handicraft village specializing in ceramics.

Discover the small, hidden alleys of this village and visit a local workshop to interact with the craftsmen and observe the complete production cycle, from preparing the clay to shaping the products, painting them and firing them in the kiln.

Have some time wander to around the market and perhaps to buy some items of your choice. Lunch at local restaurant. Return to your hotel for check in Free at leisure the rest of the day till meet at hotel lobby for Christmas Eve Buffet dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight in Hanoi.

Day 6: Hanoi - Singapore (B)
