URUMQI / KOKTOKAY / BURQIN / HEMU VILLAGE / JIADENGYU / KUITUN / YINING / TEKESI / NALATI

Day 1: Singapore – Urumqi

- Assemble at Changi International Airport and board a deluxe flight to Urumqi, China.
- Upon arrival, be met and transferred to the hotel for check-in and rest.

Day 2: Urumqi – Fuyun

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Specialty: Big Plate Chicken)

- After breakfast, we will drive to Fuyun County. On the way, we'll visit the 天山天池景区 Heavenly Lake of Tianshan (including shuttle bus and electric cart service). As one of Xinjiang's iconic scenic spots, the Heavenly Lake captivates countless visitors with its magnificent mountain-and-lake landscape and mysterious legends.
- We'll take the shuttle bus and electric cart for a comfortable ride through the area, enjoying the breathtaking scenery of the lake and surrounding mountains. Along the way, we will also pass through desert landscapes, offering a glimpse into the diverse and magical beauty of nature.
- In the evening, we'll arrive at Fuyun County and check into the local hotel.

Day 3: Fuyun – Burqin

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Flavor: Spicy Chicken)

- In the morning, we depart for Burqin. On the way, we will visit the 可可托海风景区 Koktokay Scenic Area (including shuttle bus), where you'll marvel at the spectacular canyon views and experience the awe-inspiring craftsmanship of nature.
- Next, we'll head to the 额尔齐斯河大峡谷 Irtysh Grand Canyon, taking a leisurely walk through the gorge to admire the steep cliffs on both sides and the rich ecological landscape.
- We'll then visit 神钟山 Divine Bell Mountain, a uniquely shaped peak resembling a giant bell—perfect for memorable photos. After the tour, we will proceed to check in at the hotel and rest for the night.

Day 4: Burqin – Hemu Village – Jiadengyu

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Flavor: Roasted Meat Buns)

- This morning, depart from Burqin and head to the 禾木景区 Hemu Scenic Area (including shuttle bus). You'll have the chance to explore the stunning scenery of Hemu Village. From the surrounding hills, you can enjoy a panoramic view of the village and the Hemu River—featuring misty valleys, wooden bridges over flowing streams, and nomadic herders riding through the forest. It's an idyllic and unforgettable landscape.
- Here, you can also try the fun local activity of throwing meat to feed eagles, experiencing a unique part of nomadic culture. The 禾木桥 Hemu Bridge, a symbolic all-wood structure, crosses the crystal-clear Hemu River. With its surrounding mountains and the sound of trickling water, it's a perfect spot for taking memorable photos.

- We'll also visit the 禾木观景台 Hemu Viewing Platform, the best location to take in the full panorama of the village, as well as the sunrise and sunset. From the platform, you can overlook the entire village—snow-capped peaks in the distance, gentle streams, and rows of traditional Tuva-style wooden houses in the foreground. Every corner offers postcard-worthy views.
- In the afternoon, we will travel to Jiadengyu and check in for the night.

Day 5: Jiadengyu – Burqin

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Flavor: Grilled Fish)

- In the morning, we head to the 喀纳斯景区 Kanas Scenic Area. Taking the scenic shuttle bus, we'll wind through the breathtaking mountains and lakes of Kanas.
- Upon arrival, you'll first visit the 观鱼亭 Fish Viewing Pavilion, which offers a panoramic view of the stunning Kanas Lake—its jade-green waters surrounded by majestic mountains, like a living landscape painting.
- Next, we'll visit the famous Moon Bay, Fairy Bay, and Wolong Bay, each with its own charm.
- 月亮湾 Moon Bay is known for its unique S-shaped river bend.
- 神仙湾 Fairy Bay captivates with its peaceful and tranquil atmosphere.
- 卧龙湾 Wolong Bay is so named because its curves resemble a giant dragon lying silently in the water.
- In addition, you can take a leisurely walk through the 白桦林 birch forest, feeling the freshness and serenity of nature. The tall, graceful birch trees sway gently in the breeze, their rustling leaves like whispers of nature's secrets.
- After a day immersed in the scenic beauty, we will return to Burqin and stay overnight.

Day 6: Burqin – Kuitun

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Buffet Style)

- This morning, we head to the 五彩滩景区 Five-Colored Beach (Wucaibeach) Scenic Area, famous for its rich and vibrant colors. Under the sunlight, the layered rocks display striking hues of red, yellow, green, and more—like nature's very own palette.
- We then visit the filming location of Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon — the 乌尔禾魔鬼城 Urho Ghost City (Wuerhe Ghost City) (includes scenic shuttle bus). There, you'll witness bizarre Yardang landforms, shaped by years of wind erosion. From a distance, the Wind City looks like a medieval castle—clusters of jagged rock formations rising in layers, evoking a mysterious and eerie atmosphere.
- After the tour, we continue our journey to Kuitun City. Along the way, enjoy the expansive views of oil fields stretching for hundreds of miles, showcasing the industrial strength of Northern Xinjiang. You'll also pass through areas that reflect the distinctive culture and spirit of the Xinjiang Production and Construction Corps (Bingtuan)—a unique aspect of the region's history and development.

Day 7: Kuitun – Yining

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Flavor: Whole Roast Lamb)

- After breakfast, we drive to the stunning赛里木湖Sayram Lake, known as “the last tear of the Atlantic Ocean” (includes scenic shuttle bus and boat ride). In Kazakh, its name means “blessing.” The lake features crystal-clear blue waters, snow-capped mountains reflected on its surface, vast grasslands, and blooming wildflowers. With cattle, sheep, yurts, and drifting cooking smoke, the scenery feels like a dreamland.
- On the way to Yining, we’ll enjoy a distant view of the majestic果子沟大桥Guozigou Bridge, an iconic structure spanning a famous gorge that connects Sayram Lake to the Ili River Valley. This picturesque route is celebrated as the “Number One Scenic Spot in Ili”, a breathtaking paradise.
- Afterward, we continue the drive and arrive in伊宁市 Yining City for an overnight stay.

Day 8: Yining – Tekesi

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Chinese Cuisine)

- The journey from Yining to Tekesi will lead you to explore another natural wonder and cultural treasure of Northern Xinjiang.
- We will visit the阔克苏大峡谷景区 Kokusu Grand Canyon Scenic Area (including shuttle bus, electric cart, and boat ride). Famous for its majestic canyon landscapes, crystal-clear streams and waterfalls, and abundant wildlife, this area showcases the incredible craftsmanship of nature.
- The shuttle bus takes you through the canyon to admire the grand scenery.
- The electric cart will bring you deeper into the canyon to observe unique rock formations and lush vegetation up close.
- The boat ride lets you leisurely glide on calm waters, enjoying peace and tranquillity.
- 特克斯八卦城Tekesi’s Bagua City is a mysterious and fascinating town known for its unique “Bagua” (Eight Trigrams) layout and rich historical and cultural heritage. Here, you can stroll along the ancient streets, uncover traces of history, and soak in the city’s special charm.

Day 9: Tekesi – Nalati

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Stewed Wild Pheasant with Mushrooms)

- Today, your journey begins from Tekesi, traveling along the scenic Ili River. The enchanting riverside landscapes will add a gentle and beautiful touch to your trip.
- Next, you will arrive at the那拉提大草原 Nalati Grassland (including shuttle bus), located in one of the world’s four major grassland areas—the alpine meadow plant region. Along the way, you’ll admire the stunning Gongnaisi Forest, with its rolling snow-capped mountains, vast pine forests, and blooming wildflowers.
- Nalati is a huge treasure trove of flora and fauna. Wildlife such as snow grouse, falcons, horses, deer, and brown bears inhabit the area. It is also known for producing precious medicinal herbs like snow lotus and motherwort.
- The landscape features broad river valleys and towering mountain peaks, creating breathtaking scenery at every turn.

Day 10: Nalati – Yining

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Local Flavor: Pepper Chicken)

- After breakfast, we return to Yining City and visit the 卡赞其民俗旅游景区 Kazanchi Folk Culture Tourism Area (includes horse-drawn carriage ride, traditional homes, local ice cream, and folk performances).
- This is a national 4A-rated tourist attraction, covering an area of approximately 22.9 square kilometers, with a core area of 12.8 square kilometers. Known as a “Living Museum of Folk Homes”, the area is a large, authentic cultural destination themed around ethnic customs and traditional lifestyles.
- Here, you'll experience the rich heritage and charm of Xinjiang's diverse ethnic groups through its architecture, food, music, and dance

Day 11: Yining – Urumqi

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Volcanic Theme Buffet)

- Take a high-speed train to Urumqi, where you'll visit the 新疆国际大巴扎 Xinjiang International Grand Bazaar — the largest bazaar in the world.
- The term bazaar means "marketplace," and this is one of the most iconic cultural landmarks of Xinjiang. It serves as a “Window to Xinjiang,” “Window to Central Asia,” and “Window to the World.”
- The bazaar recreates the commercial prosperity of the ancient Silk Road and showcases strong ethnic characteristics and regional culture through its architecture, shops, music, and local handicrafts.

Day 12: Urumqi – Singapore

(Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner – Volcanic Theme Buffet)

- After breakfast, transfer to the airport and board your international flight back to Singapore.
- We wish you a joyful and unforgettable journey through Northern Xinjiang, and thank you for choosing to travel with Deks Air Travel.
